

Cristinel Munteanu (PhD 2006 and 2018) is currently full professor at “Danubius” University of Galați (Romania) and director of the Center for Hermeneutics “Symbols and Texts” at the same university. He is also affiliated to the Doctoral School of Philology, within IOSUD University of Pitești. He earned his first PhD (in philology) in 2006 with a thesis on phraseological synonymy in Romanian and his second PhD (in philosophy) in 2018 with a thesis on John Dewey’s “theory of inquiry” considered as a sui generis type of hermeneutics. His main research interests lie in phraseology, text linguistics, hermeneutics, semiotics, philosophy of language and the history of linguistic ideas, with a special focus on Integral Linguistics. His books include Sinonimia frazeologică în limba română din perspectiva lingvisticii integrale [Phraseological synonymy in Romanian from the perspective of Integral Linguistics] (2007), Lingvistica integrală coseriană. Teorie, aplicații și interviuri [Coserian Integral Linguistics. Theory, applications and interviews] (2012), Frazeologie românească. Formare și funcționare [Romanian phraseology. Formation and functioning] (2013), Tradition and innovation in language and linguistics. A Coserian perspective (Peter Lang, 2017), John Dewey și problema sensului. Premise pentru constituirea unei hermeneutici integrale [John Dewey and the problem of meaning. Premises for the establishment of an integral hermeneutics] (2019). He has published over 200 articles and edited texts by Tobias Peucer, Bogdan P. Hasdeu and Eugenio Coseriu. He also edited (in collaboration with Klaas Willems) the volume Eugenio Coseriu. Past, Present and Future (De Gruyter, 2021). He is the editor-in-chief of Acta Universitatis Danubius. Communicatio (Galați) and a member of the editorial board and/or scientific board of journals such as Fonetică și Dialectologie (Bucharest), Limba română (Chișinău) and Energeia. Online Journal for Linguistics, Language Philosophy and History of Linguistics (Zürich).